DATELINE: WARD FIVE

RE: LOCAL AHRIMAN OFFICIALS PANIC UNDER THREAT OF NEW GOF HUMANIZED CYBER VIRUS ADMIST CALLS FROM THE CDC TO LOCKDOWN THE ENTIRE WARD.

A disturbing new rumor has emerged on social media, suggesting that several, well-known, high tech corporate entities have disregarded a court order upholding the recent Ahriman Collation of Willing States banning of all AI Media Applications.

Reports indicate that these corporations have acquired a stake in the parent company of the application known as "Old Black Magic."

This app is particularly notorious for its insidious ability to manipulate unsuspecting seniors into believing they retain their youthful spirit, effectively casting a deceptive allure that obscures the realities of aging. Reports from various regions worldwide indicate a rising wave of public anxiety in several countries within the Free Nation's Confederation.

This unrest is largely attributed to governmental efforts to implement legal measures aimed at prohibiting the use of a particular social media application.

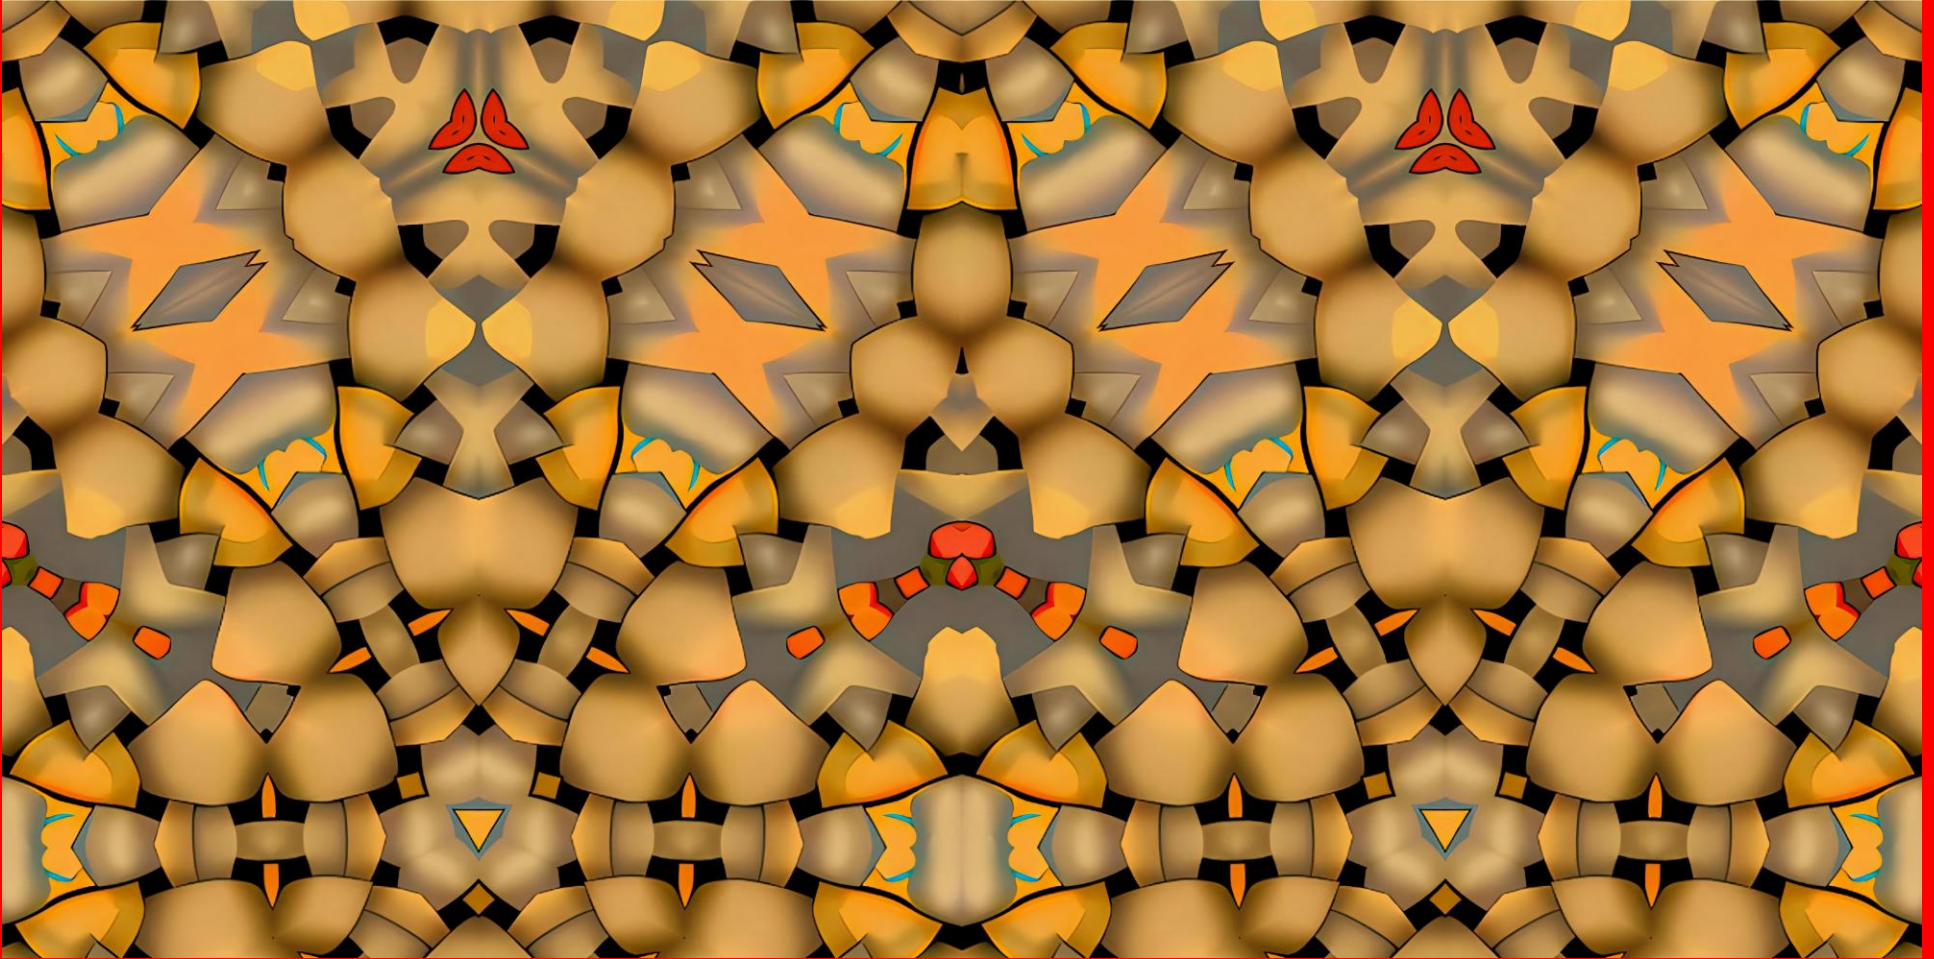

Authorities are particularly focused on age restrictions, seeking to prevent individuals over the age of 35 from accessing what has been labeled as humanized malware.

The urgency of these actions stems from escalating concerns voiced by national health organizations and the World Health Organization (not to be confused with the musical group) regarding the potential for a significant increase in local senior populations exhibiting erratic behavior.

There are fears that these individuals may adopt a delusional mindset, believing themselves to be fourteen years old once more, which could lead to chaotic situations in urban areas.

Officials in Ward Five have emphasized the critical need for preventive measures to avert a repeat of the GOF Zombie Insurrection that occurred a few years ago. An anonymous local official, speaking off the record, conveyed that the memories of the Zombie Sample Insurrection remain vivid among community leaders. He expressed his belief that the recent announcement of a nightly curfew represents a prudent initial step rather than an overreaction, countering the alarming suggestions made by a representative from the CDC who proposed a comprehensive lockdown of the entire Ward. This official appeared perplexed by her assertion that such a lockdown would serve as a legal means to identify those who have behaved well versus those who have not. He noted that past lockdowns had proven financially beneficial for various civic leaders, leading some to consider the CDC representative's offer of assistance from elements of the Antifa Militia, commanded by Lt. General Schiff, to support local law enforcement during lockdowns and street patrols. Ultimately, however, the decision was made, in agreement with Madam Cleo, the proprietor of the GIS-GIS Addiction Treatment Center, to implement a curfew, with the rationale that "No fourteen-year-old needs to be out on the streets at those hours."

NOTE FROM EMIL:

Earlier today, I had an unexpected encounter with an individual who appeared to be a victim of the GOF Humanized Cyber Virus.

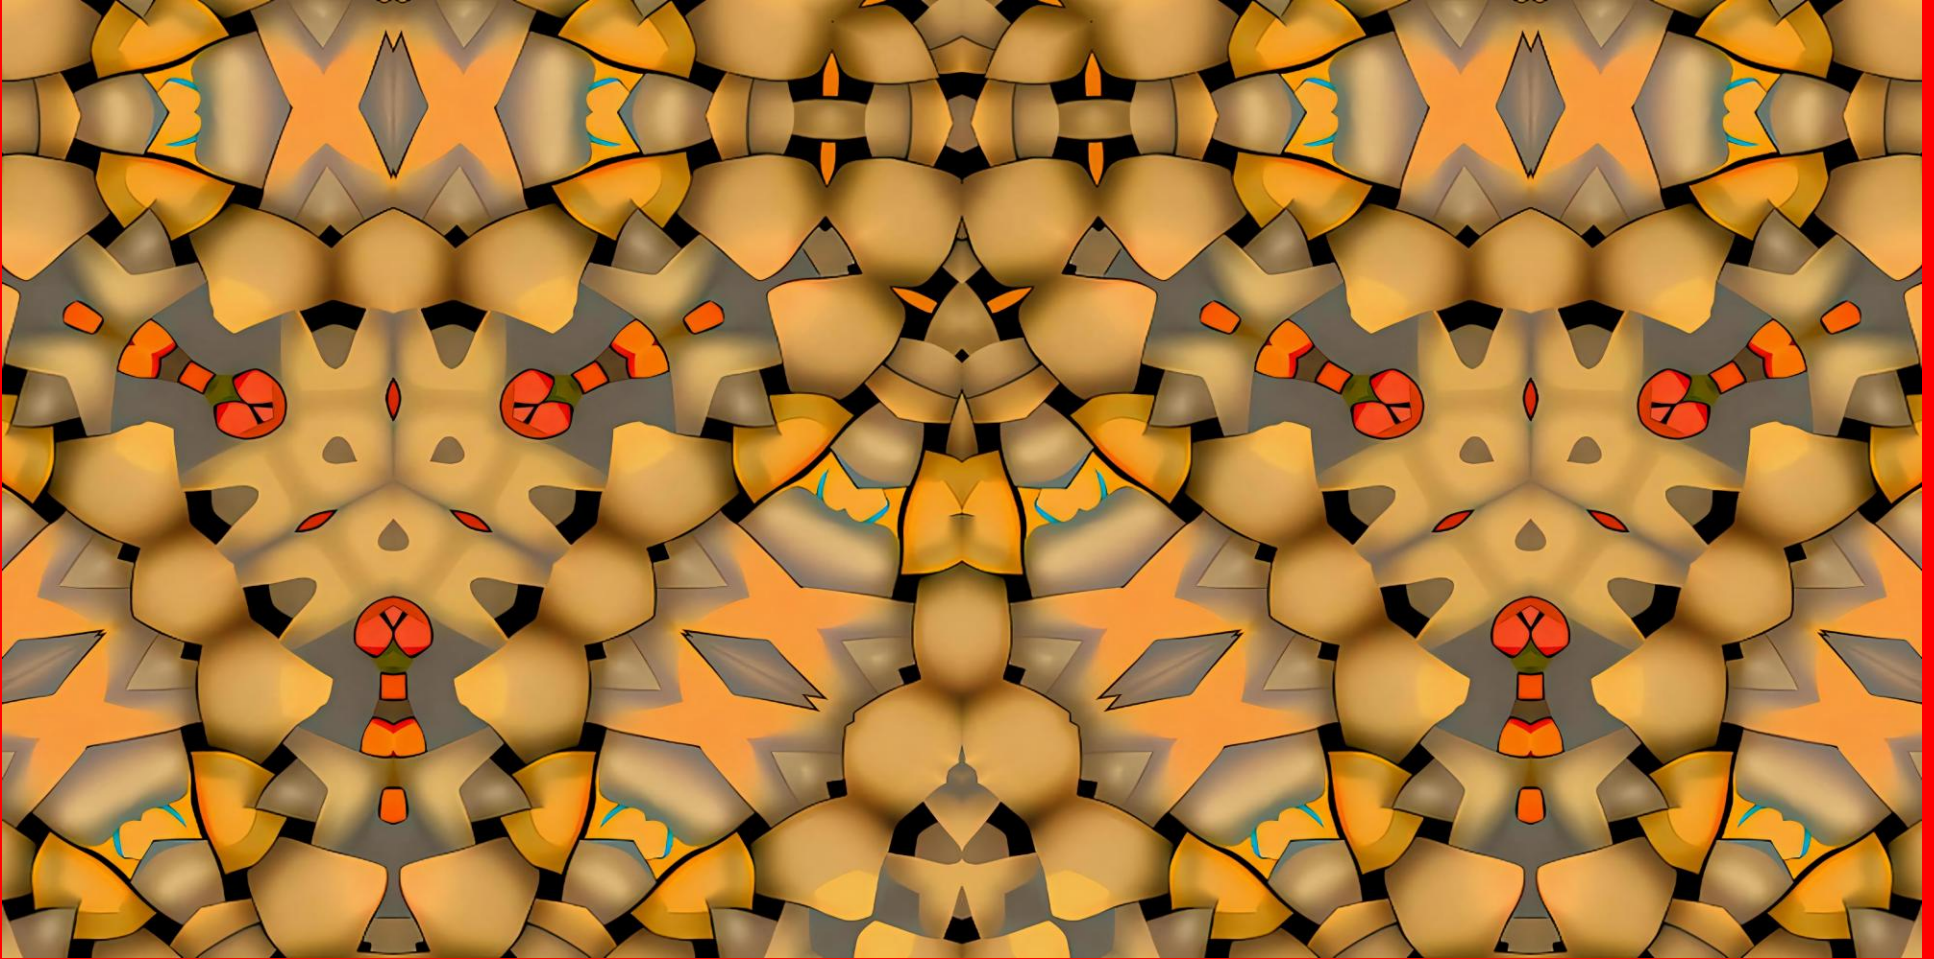

This peculiar meeting took place when a rather senior gentleman, adorned in a homemade skylark costume, knocked on my door.

His attire was complemented by a striking moo-moo, characterized by vibrant polka dot patterns interwoven with a tie-dyed depiction of moonbeams cascading over distant hilltops.

The sheer eccentricity of his moo-moo momentarily overwhelmed me, triggering a vivid flashback to a rather unpleasant experience involving a Red Curry Pancake Mixture.

This memory transported me back to a narrow alleyway in Singapore, where an illegal gypsy band would perform nightly, their haunting melodies resonating amidst the bustling hawker stalls, regardless of the weather.

Their melancholic tunes, sung for tips and beers, lingered in the air, creating an atmosphere that was both enchanting and bittersweet.

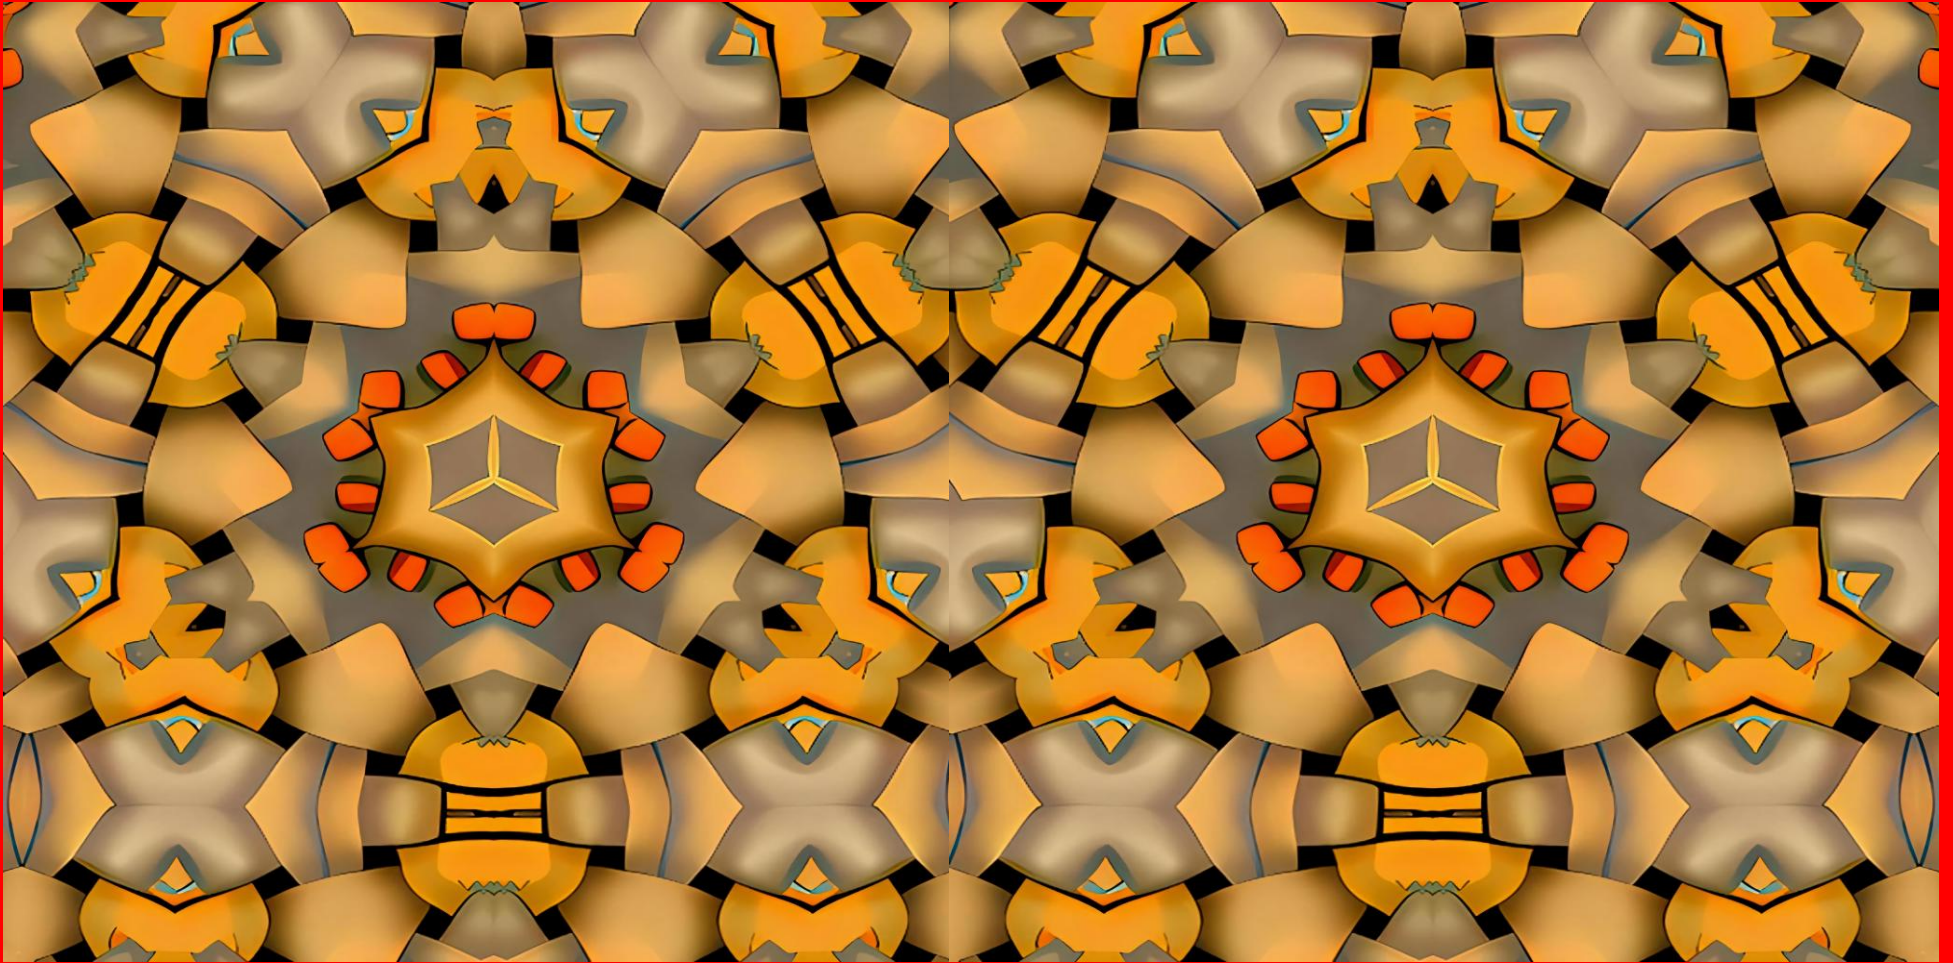

I have a vague memory of his words, yet I distinctly remember the Skylark leaning in close to my functioning ear and murmuring,

"It's now or never... it's all or nothing—either seize the.

However, before I could fully grasp the significance of his message, he grew impatient and dashed over to the neighboring house, ringing their doorbell.
